

Back in the sixties Eddie Hodges sang a cute song called Mug Mates. It went a little like this
“I go for coffee...You go for coffee...We both go for coffee ... so let’s be Mug Mates ... means we’re going together”.

LWMLC ladies would like to invite everyone to become a Mug Mate as a new way to encourage fellowship. Two mates will come together via the telephone for conversation while enjoying their favorite beverage. It is our hope and prayer that this will serve as a fun way to stay connected during these difficult days.

If you would like to hear the complete song go to YouTube and type in Mug mates by Eddie Hodges

Looking forward to having a mate to enjoy a mug of coffee with! Even if it is remotely.
